

Project No. 9

PROJECT COORDINATION (ANDHERI HILFE DESK)

Principle:

Ensure quality services by enhancing capacity of the Partner NGOs of Andheri Hilfe Bonn, Germany.

Objectives:

- To make information flow available to Andheri Hilfe Bonn related to the progress of local development interventions;
- To help Andheri Hilfe Bonn for proper planning on development initiatives;
- To ensure proper monitoring system of local partners of Andheri Hilfe Bonn; and
- To provide analytical evaluation and progress reports for Andheri Hilfe Bonn to take appropriate decisions.

Background:

Project Coordination Andheri Hilfe Desk started in 2007. The reporting year is the third year of first phase.

Staff Strength: Total-2 (Male-1, Female-1)

Donor:

Andheri Hilfe Bonn, Germany.

Expenditure:

Foreign partners Contribution: Tk. 1,952,021

Target and achievements:

One of the important responsibilities of this project is to conduct project assessments and pay field visits to ensure sound project management. The following Table shows the achievements during the reporting period.

| Name of the Donor | Pre funding assessment/Desk studies/ Appraisal | Mid Term Evaluation/Field Visit | Impact Assessment | External Evaluation/Monitoring | Total |
|--------------------|--|---------------------------------|-------------------|--------------------------------|-------|
| Andheri Hilfe Bonn | 6 | 7 | 1 | --- | 14 |

The above Table shows that six pre-funding assessments/appraisal, seven mid-term evaluation/field visits and one impact assessment were conducted during the reporting period by the staff members of this project.

Education:

The staff members of Project Coordination (Andheri Hilfe Desk) organized a total of 14 training courses and workshops on Facilitating and Strengthening People's Organization and Managing IGAs, Participatory Impact Monitoring for enhancing the capacity and efficiency of the staff members of the Partner NGOs of Andheri Hilfe Bonn.

Results:

- Partner NGOs can understand different contemporary development issues. Their staff members have become skilled and efficient in planning, supervision, monitoring and evaluation of development projects. Therefore, they can now contribute more to overall development initiatives taken by their own NGOs.
- Through attending different trainings/workshops/meetings both at home and abroad the capabilities of the staff members of this project with respect to their professional areas are gradually increasing. As a result they are now equipped with necessary techniques to promote effective and innovative services for the people in need.

Conclusion:

All projects supported by Andheri Hilfe Bonn are being coordinated and monitored through this Project Coordination. A two-day planning workshop named 'Vision 2020' was organized by Caritas Bangladesh in April 2009 for all partner NGOs of Andheri Hilfe Bonn including BNSBs. In May 2009 the Team Leader of Andheri Hilfe Team in Caritas Bangladesh attended the Vision 2020 workshop held in Bonn, Germany. The staff members of this project are sincere and dedicated about their responsibilities and they always strive hard to acquire time-demanding skills and techniques so as to extend efficient services to others.
